Dear Trudy,

Congratulations! We are thrilled that the Van Dop Arts & Culture Guide has been recognized at the International Association of Printing House Craftsmen's 2009 Gallery of Superb Printing Awards and awarded a Bronze in the Web Offset Soft Bound Book - 4 colour category.

In 2009, entries originating in Australia, Britain, China, Grenada, Hong Kong, India, Italy, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Poland, The Cayman Islands, Russia, Singapore and South Africa joined hundreds of other entrants from around North America in competing for honours. International judges trained their expert eyes on these entries which had to pass three grueling rounds of judging to be eligible for the Best of the Best named awards. The Best of the Best will be awarded in 2010.

Kevin Keane, president and CEO of the IAPHC, The Graphic Professionals Resource Network and producer of the International Gallery commented on our success in the 35th International Gallery:

"[Teldon Print Media], as befitting its employee owned status, is determined to provide every kind of end to end solution its clients may dream up and importantly, each employee takes a special pride of 'ownership' in doing their utmost on each client's job, from concept through completion.

The panoply of awards won by Teldon in the 35th International Gallery is jaw dropping, with a total of 77 awards won, but to actually touch and inspect each entry tells the tale - this giant in the Canadian market and increasingly the world, gives urgent and real meaning to one of its memorable marketing taglines - Teldon really does "give a damn" for its clients, its industry, its employees, and the environment - and it shows in another record setting award winning performance. It awes me, it delights me and it provides me proof that Print is Alive!"

We're so proud to have been a part of your award-winning project, and believe that this is a true testament to what a strong partnership between a client and a print supplier can accomplish. We hope you are as proud as all of us here are of your award.

Thank you,

Evelyn Edwardson
