WEEKLY ART DIGEST BC'S CREATIVE COMMUNITIES

BC'S RECOMMENDED ARTS + CULTURAL DESTINATIONS

POP ! | On display until September 17, 2018 | Audain Art Museum

Art lovers had always assumed that high art and popular culture were oppositional concepts — until Andy Warhol, Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Rauschenberg and others of their generation challenged prevailing assumptions about what fine art should be. This exhibition features 37 works drawn from the Smithsonian American Art Museum collection.

Catch it at our member's destination: Audain Art Museum in Whistler, BC.

Permanent Exhibition | Touchstones Nelson Museum

Touchstones Nelson: Museum of Art and History is a multi-faceted cultural hub located in downtown Nelson. The museum houses regional archives, history collection, regional museum, two contemporary gallery spaces and a stunning gift shop, all within a 1902 heritage post office. Our exhibition spaces display 8 to 10 exhibitions per year and showcase the work of contemporary Canadian artists and interesting historical exhibitions.

Labour Day Fair | September 3, 2018 | Burnaby Village Museum

Join Burnaby Village Museum for the last day of our Summer Season on Monday, September 3 from 11am - 4:30pm. It's a day full of old-fashioned fun with games of chance, entertainment, demonstrations, a children's craft, and market vendors. Plus FREE carousel rides (courtesy of Burnaby Parks, Recreation & Culture Commission and Cupe Local 23).
