We had a wonderful turnout for Gillian Richards Exhibition Opening of 'Walking with Gus' last month. So many old and new faces joined us, reminding our team and board how lucky we are to live in a community that continues to support rural arts programming, and the extremely talented creative careers it has created over the years! Thank you to Bench1775 for supplying your delicious drop at our events.

Family Sunday | October 14 | 11am–3pm | Surrey Art Gallery | Surrey BC

Surrey Art Gallery invites families to join them for a fun-filled afternoon of artmaking and an interactive musical yarn and dance performance on Sunday, October 14 from 11am to 3pm on the theme “Tactile Textiles.” Everyone is welcome at this free drop-in event—children must be with an adult.

Inspired by the Gallery’s fall exhibits, this upcoming Family Sunday celebrates the ordinary and extraordinary world of textiles. Cotton, silk, wool, nylon, and polyester are just a few types of textiles or fabrics created out of natural or synthetic fibres. These materials are around us every day—from the clothes we wear to the sheets we sleep in and artists use this material to create beautiful works of art.

Art After Dark is a soiree style party designed to cultivate the creative community in Vernon by offering a venue of art, food, drinks, music, and hands-on art activities.

With the referendum nearing, attending Art After Dark is a great way for guests to show they support arts and culture and would like to see a new Greater Vernon Cultural Centre become a reality.
