BC'S RECOMMENDED ARTS + CULTURAL DESTINATIONS

Jojo's Cafe | | Osoyoos, BC

Jojo's Café is an intimate, cozy place with a very cool vibe. Locals love to meet here and out-of-towners feel like they're at home. They love what they do, and hospitality is Jojo's area of expertise. One of Jojo's philosophies is to promote and encourage local art and music. At least four times each month Jojo hosts musicians who are on tour, with the ticket prices are never more than $20. Come check them out this season, by clicking the link here.

Moon Curser Vineyards | Osoyoos, BC

Moon Curser Vineyards is a small, family owned winery in Osoyoos, a South Okanagan border town known for its hot summers, beautiful lakes and vineyards. The name pays tribute to the gold smuggling history of Osoyoos. The wines, however, show no such respect for tradition – the winery is known for growing unusual varieties such as Tannat, Dolcetto, Touriga Nacional, Arneis, Marsanne and Roussanne to name a few. These varieties have not been a part of history of the South Okanagan, but thrive in the unique terroir on the Osoyoos East Bench.

Ielem' Arts & Cultural Cafe | Langley Township, BC

Ielem' means home in a hənq̓emínen language

For countless generations, the Kwantlen People and other local neighbouring First Nations communities lived in villages along the lower Fraser River that shaped a vibrant cultural landscape. Offering locally sourced food with an Indigenous twist
Inspired by the temperate rainforests of the Pacific, our cafe by the river features a bright, airy layout and generous use of cedar. We are proud to be Indigenous owned, with our menu incorporating some of the traditional flavours of a Coast Salish diet.

Wild Rice Market Bistro & River Market at Westminster Quay | New Westminster, BC

The River Market is where the hungry and curious gather to eat, shop, and play. First opened in 1985 as Westminster Quay Public Market this 75,000 square-foot marketplace on the Fraser River pioneered a food-led revitalization to become a hub for community life. Today, it showcases 25 of

B.C.'s best independent restaurants, shops, and schools all under one roof.

Vancouver's North Shore Ale Trail | North Vancouver, BC

Vancouver's North Shore | There's an après beer for everyone in the big city's outdoor playground. The BC Ale Trail is the definitive guide to craft beer in British Columbia. This year, Vancouver's North Shore's six breweries joined the BC Ale Trail inviting you to arrive thirsty and leave inspired.

With the North Shore Ale Trail you will find an itinerary of breweries, attractions, restaurants and hotels to let you experience the full flavour of what the North Shore has to offer.

We invite you to use our suggested route or use the BC Ale Trail website to build your own trip, and veer off course to explore the North and West Vancouver's neighbourhood gems. Start your trail by clicking the link here.
