Art of the Getaway

Indigenous Getaways...

Looking for a truly memorable Getaway? Something other than the usual hotel room looking very much like every other hotel room you have stayed in. Consider an Indigenous Getaway! Your accommodation becomes part of an unforgettable experience immersing you in a rich culture, guided by authentic indigenous hospitality, and often extending into the décor of your room.

But It's more than just Indigenous-themed accommodations. Your hosts upon asking, will share the history and legends of the area, connecting you to the place. Often offering Indigenous guiding services deepening your understanding of their heritage and lifestyle. Indigenous-inspired cuisine like bannock or salmon prepared in a variety of traditional ways may be offered.

After a day paddling a canoe discovering indigenous heritage sites, or a day spent in a zodiac visiting SGang Gwaay Llnagaay (Ninstints) a UNESCO World Heritage Site walking through old-growth forest and savouring a traditional wild salmon beach barbecue; how better to end the day than in your room in Haida House, which happens to be offering a Getaway Special Sunday June 16th and Saturday June 22nd. For details see below.

There is an indigenous Getaway here for discovering and experiencing... some without leaving Vancouver such as at Skwachays Lodge.

Kwa'lilas Hotel | Port Hardy

Kwa'lilas is a kwak'wala word used by Gwa'sala-Nakwaxda'xw people meaning a place to sleep. A group of Elders chose this word in hopes that travelers and guests would find a peaceful rest after a day of exploration on the North Island.

Quaaout Lodge | Chase

The Quaaout Lodge & Talking Rock Golf Course, the pride of the Little Shuswap Indian Band, is situated on the south shore of Little Shuswap Lake.

Their History goes back over 12,000 years where our old people lived off the land and waters of our old countries. Travelling by sea between our villages allowed families to practice our culture through ceremonies like feasts, and potlatching.

Located midway between Vancouver & Calgary we are located just minutes off the Trans Canada Highway, a 45 minute drive east from the Kamloops, or a scenic 2 hour drive north from Kelowna International Airport.
