Vancouver Food Tour

Vancouver Food Tour's guided culinary tours showcase the best restaurant gems in Vancouver's most vibrant neighbourhoods and beyond. Unlike other tours, we lead you away from tourist traps instead of towards. A passionate team of local food and drink experts entertain guests on the delectable and informative tours. Our guides are never hired actors because we believe you deserve a culinary professional as your guide. Our progressive dinner menu focuses on local, seasonal, and sustainable fare, including BC wines, craft beers, cheeses and charcuterie, seafood, and much more. This tour is perfect for guests that love food, city exploration, and desires to taste Vancouver from a true local's perspective.

Murals of Chemainus

The Chemainus Mural Project, started in 1981, is the world's leading community-driven art tourism experience and ultimately has become the blueprint for community mural projects globally. Come to this quaint seaside town and follow the yellow footsteps to discover the more than 40 murals, including some inspired by Emily Carr and 10 sculptures depicting Chemainus' colourful past. In addition, there is a 40-foot labyrinth modelled after the Chartres labyrinth in France, to enhance your visit!

Vernon Heritage Murals

The Downtown Vernon Association has invested in the creation of the 28 amazing works of art that grace our downtown buildings. These murals depict the history, culture, scenery, and folklore that made Vernon what it is today. The mural project was a multi-year collaborative effort that included youth employment, revitalization, and heritage conservation strategies. The newest addition to the murals depicts the Internment Camps in Canada during WW1, one of which was in Vernon.
