Presenting Artist Exhibitions

British Columbia's artists use the province's natural beauty and raw materials to create remarkable treasures showcased in BC art galleries. Dramatic paintings, evocative photographs and a cornucopia of artisan arts capture the province's diverse geography and multi-faceted spirit.

Numerous Art-BC Recommended galleries support and promote these artists.

VANCOUVER ART GALLERY
Vancouver

Discover the power of art at one of North America's most exciting and innovative visual arts institutions. Four iconic works by renowned Canadian Modernist painter Emily Carr are on view as well as ground-breaking exhibitions and selections from the permanent collection. Meditate on more than a century's worth of Canadian and international art, from historical masters to contemporary visionaries.

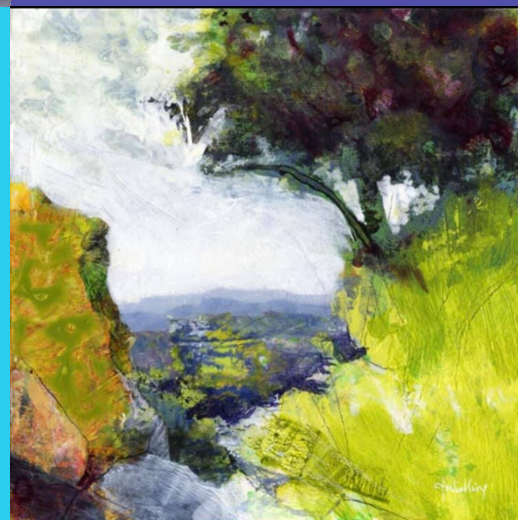

GORDON SMITH GALLERY OF CANADIAN ART
North Vancouver

The Gordon Smith Gallery of Canadian Art opened its doors in 2012 to provide enrichment opportunities and ignite community engagement through exceptional Canadian Art curation. Gordon Smith is a celebrated Canadian artist whose work can be seen in collections such as the National Gallery of Canada, and the Victoria and Albert Museum in London, England.

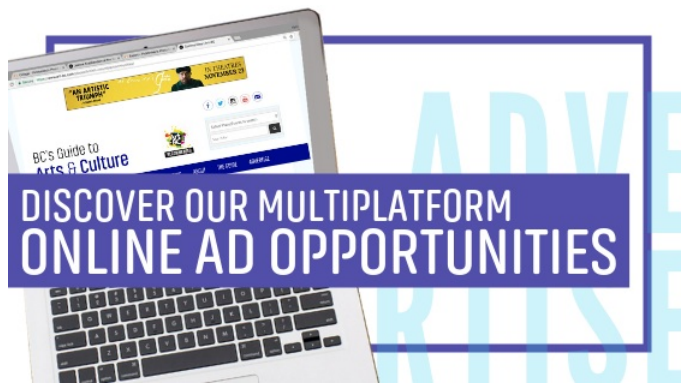

GALLERY MERRICK
