SOUND OF MUSIC Vancouver

November 7, 2019 – January 5, 2020

The hills are alive! One of the most powerful and romantic musicals of all time, The Sound of Music brims with beloved tunes such as "My Favorite Things," "Do-Re-Mi," "Climb Ev'ry Mountain," and "Edelweiss." Journey along with the spirited Maria, who takes a governess position with the von Trapp family, falling first for the children and then the widower Captain von Trapp himself, all against the stirring backdrop of pre-WWII Austria.

Performing Arts

For centuries, theatre has been a powerful form of artistic expression that captivates audiences and provides endless opportunity for creativity. The timeless performance of an actor presenting a dramatic monologue - an imagined world created by set designers - every experience of the theatre is unique and memorable.

IT'S A WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS-ISH HOLIDAY MIRACLE Vancouver

November 21, 2019 – December 22, 2019

The holidays are all about loved ones. But what happens when your parents get divorced, your kid brother is best friends with a stick bug named Ralphie, and your grandma's ghost starts appearing with advice—and her iPhone? OMG! It's a Wonderful Life meets Modern Family in this new Canadian comedy about a family during a complicated season.

MISS BENNET: CHRISTMAS AT PEMBERLEY Vancouver

December 5, 2019 – January 4, 2020

A holiday confection filled with classic Jane Austen charm, Miss Bennet is a modern sequel about the bookish middle child of the Bennets. While Mary starts to dream of a new life beyond her boisterous family, an unexpected visitor at the Darcy household could spell romance. You'll revel in this sparkling comic play that's full of seasonal felicity.

BALLET BC - PROGRAM ONE Vancouver

October 31, 2019 - November 2, 2019

Program 1 invites you to the season launch with works by two acclaimed dance makers. Aszure Barton opens with the Canadian premiere of BUSK, showcasing versatile and poignant choreography while transporting us into the world of busking. Johan Inger's B.R.I.S.A. explores themes of awakening and change, captivating the senses with absurdist touches, offbeat props, and earthy, all-too-human movement and emotion.
