Must See Artwork and More

CRAWFORD STUDIOS Fanny Bay

Decorative glass is a versatile medium that combines the intrinsic beauty and texture of glass with the natural wonderment of light. The appearance of the glass is changed through the processes of sandblasting, etching, carving, or sculpting to produce timeless pieces of art that are as functional as they are beautiful. Crawford Etched Glass is a home based studio. Whether your tastes prefer the simple or elaborate, decorative sandblasted glass is a beautiful and versatile medium that can transform or conform to your home décor.

Artists and Studios

British Columbia's cultural landscape and natural beauty is home to over 100,000 artists & studios. Art-BC's extensive directory enables you to find and connect with artists around the province. Art-BC's "Creative Communities" showcases artists, studios, and other cultural destinations in the community ensuring an inclusive cultural experience. Each community has its own unique cultural footprint and diversity, contributing to the cultural mosaic of British Columbia Creative Economy

MOTOKO FINE ART STUDIO AND GALLERY Garden Bay

Motoko's goal is to create art that evokes emotions and feelings and generates positive energy and harmony within viewers. She wants to create pieces that people wish to have in their daily lives and which brings them joy and happiness. "Originally from Japan, I am strongly influenced by my Japanese cultural background, as well as the natural beauty of British Columbia's west coast where I now live."

CHRISTY FEAVER JEWELLERY Tofino

Christy Feaver is an acclaimed metalsmith and a unique designer. Inspired by all things that move and change, Christy's mantra flows throughout her artwork. Looking at her collections one can see insights into her key influencers. The love and light she emits through her being mixed with the physical shapes of the landscapes that surround her. It is with her link to the ocean in particular, where you will see the core structures within her work reveal themselves.

MAISON SANSKAR Bowen Island

Maison Sanskar offers custom fitted garments from the current Sonam Dubal collections. His unique signature styles fuse Eastern tradition with a modern aesthetic, redefining oriental cuts into chic, contemporary silhouettes that combine modern influences with flair. Dubal has an Eco-Fashion philosophy that matches his Buddhist background. "Sustainable or responsible business practices is a journey each brand and business takes in order to continually learn, do better, and have less of a negative impact on our planet."

Visiting Artists Studios is always more fun with friends.
