Festivals & Events

This week's digest is presented by Metro Vancouver's MAXguide. MAX, or the Metro Arts Xperience guide, promotes cultural events and arts organizations in the Metro Vancouver region. Many of British Columbia's diverse festivals and events take place in the lower mainland and MAXguide supports their growth. Find beautiful First Nations art, film festivals, emerging artists, studio tours, holiday markets, and more in Metro Vancouver with the help of MAXguide and Art-BC.com

VANCOUVER CHRISTMAS MARKET

Vancouver

November 20 – December 24

The Vancouver Christmas Market returns for 2019 with a bigger edition of old country tradition at its brand new home at Jack Poole Plaza (at the Olympic Cauldron). The city's signature yuletide celebration expands its revelry with more than 50,000 square feet of space and over 70 huts in which to savour an abundance of festive flavours. Tickets from Adult $13 – Children Age 0-6, FREE.

WINTER NIGHT MARKET

New Westminster

December 7 - December 8

Shop 50 handmade vendors at this year's New West Craft Winter Night Market. Enjoy live music and indulge in some delicious food and drinks. This year we have two shopping locations! Hop on the Skytrain and get off at the Braid Street Station. Follow the lights to 100 Braid St Studios where you'll find their resident artists and another selection of over 20 carefully selected artisan and craft vendors.

TALES OF A CHARLIE BROWN CHRISTMAS

Burnaby

December 11 - December 12

The Shadbolt Centre presents “Charlie Brown Christmas.” Jerry stands on stage and tells the story of how it, all of it, almost never happened. Somehow disaster was averted at every turn and the magic of the music, of Charlie Brown, the vision of Vince Guaraldi, persevered. It is, today, undeniably a classic. In 1965 the soundtrack for a scrappy little animated Christmas special emerged.

NANAIMO ART WALK

Nanaimo

December 7 - December 8

Nanaimo is home to an astounding number of incredibly talented and accomplished artists. A good portion of this community comes together once a year to share their creations with you. This year more than 45 artists who work in a variety of mediums open their studios or set up displays in businesses in downtown Nanaimo to offer work for view and sale. This is a self-guided tour through artists studios and host locations, featuring a great variety of art with something for everybody’s budget.

Visiting Festivals & Events is always more fun with friends.

The Arts Club Theatre Company is the largest theatre company in Western Canada. Each year, over a quarter of a million people attend its productions. The company's three venues: the Stanley Industrial Building, the BMO Theatre Centre, and the BMO Theatre Centre, as well as on tour throughout the province. The Arts Club also expands its audiences outside Vancouver through a three-show mini-season tour presented at venues around British Columbia. The 2018/2019 Arts Club season features five productions at the historic 440-seat Consolida Island Theatre and four productions at the intimate 250-seat Colborne Room at
