From January through December British Columbia offers contemporary, classic, and alternative artistic styles. Music festivals help lift us up to dance while galleries and museums offer galas that will make you explore a wide variety of subjects. Join us as we celebrate 2020 with some of these featured highlights.

Vancouver

January 11, 2020 - January 25, 2020

A comedic take on Vancouver's real estate crisis where property values are high, rental vacancy rates are low, and owning your own home is unaffordable. Hilary and Henry didn't know how lucky they were when they managed to buy a house before the real estate market skyrocketed. Finding themselves house rich and cash poor, they abandon their values and plunge into the world of short term rentals. How far can they go to keep their house?

INFINITY

Vernon

January 22, 2020

The Vernon & District Performing Arts Centre welcomes Infinity to the stage! Three brilliant minds—a musician, a mathematician, and a theoretical physicist—collide like particles, learning that love and time are connected in ways they couldn't have imagined in this shocking and revelatory play. Vernon's own Jonathon Young stars as Elliot, a brilliant theoretical physicist. The Arts Centre auditorium is a 750-seat proscenium arch theatre with balcony seating and an orchestra pit.

COLDSNAP WINTER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Prince George

January 24, 2020 - February 1, 2020
