COURTENAY & DISTRICT MUSEUM

Courtenay

The Courtenay and District Museum was established in 1961. We offer on-site and outdoor programming suitable for all age groups. Program subjects include fossils, geology, First Nations history, pioneer settlement history, social history of the Comox Valley, logging and lumber history, river way study, as well as, a series of changing exhibitions. Visitors come to explore the marine fossil exhibits, and visit fossil sites in the local area.

CUMBERLAND MUSEUM

Cumberland

The Cumberland Museum and Archives on Vancouver Island tells the story of the people of Cumberland – the rich, the poor, the powerful, the rebellious, the righteous and the radical. We invite you to join us at the “People’s Museum”, add your questions, knowledge, stories and interests to the rich fabric of our organization. We offer over 40 exhibits, a Company Store, research services, after school programs, heritage events, guided tours, films, video kiosks, and a replica coal mine.

BRITANNIA MINE MUSEUM

Britannia Beach

Just like miners did, visitors climb aboard a train and rumble into an underground tunnel. Let our quick-witted and knowledgeable tour guides usher you to years gone by. It's a ride that introduces the joys, noise and stories of Britannia's history and pioneers. Spend your day panning for gold, enjoying interactive exhibits, gazing at our glittering mineral gallery and exploring 10 acres of Canadian heritage at this National Historic Site.

NEW WESTMINSTER MUSEUM & ARCHIVES

New Westminister

New Westminister's Museums & Archives are managed across three city locations: the Anvil Centre, Irving House and the Samson V Museum. The operations care for over 36,000 objects and another 35,000 photographs and archival records that celebrate our city's stories and history. And exhibits focus on the land, people, development of the place now known as New Westminister. The objects in the collection act as an entry-point to inquiry, discussion, and exploration about the city.

The Arts Club Theatre Company is the largest theatre company in Western Canada. Each year, over a quarter of a million people attend its productions at its three venues: the Stanley Theatre, the BMO Theatre Centre, and the BMO Theatre Centre. The Arts Club also expands its audiences outside Vancouver through a three-show marathon tour presented at venues around British Columbia. The 2018/2019 Arts Club season features five productions at the Stanley Theatre, five productions at the BMO Theatre Centre, and five productions at the BMO Theatre Centre.
