BOUNDARY COUNTRY TOURISM Boundary Country

Welcome to Boundary Country, a land of fertile fields, lush valleys, lakes, rivers and mountains. Many of our artists came here to be inspired by the sheer beauty of the region in the Thompson-

Creative Community Tourism Organizations

BC's Community Tourism marketing organizations strive to promote various arts, cultural destinations and events, in their region. Each organization seeks to brand its region and engage with regional arts and culture entities to create a mecca for cultural tourism. Here, Art-BC spotlights a few of these tourism organizations building awareness of the many cultural experiences offered in our beautiful province.

Okanagan. Feel the flow of the Kettle River as it lazily meanders through Boundary Country. Bighorn sheep, elk, eagles and hawks animate postcard-worthy vistas. These are the visuals that lure artists and artisans here.

TOURISM BOWEN ISLAND

Bowen Island

Take refuge on tranquil shores and immerse yourself in our natural environment reconnecting with what matters most. Bowen Island is an idyllic destination in the middle of Howe Sound. Just a 20-minute ferry ride from Horseshoe Bay in West Vancouver. It is a great day trip or escape from the city. Explore our shores and admire the breathtaking view from Mount Gardner, check out the vibrant arts scene, or just relax and kick back, resting in solace at one of our enticing B&B's.

TOURISM PRINCE RUPERT

Prince Rupert

Discover British Columbia's wild and beautiful Northwest Coast where nature, history and vibrant personalities collide. It's a place where restored historic buildings house tour guides, artist collectives, shops, and offices come together. A friendly feeling suffuses the whole area. The folks who work hard running local businesses here are proud of the place they call home, they love this landscape, and they are excited to share Prince Rupert with visitors.

TOURISM ABBOTSFORD

Abbotsford

Abbotsford is the hub of the Fraser Valley, both historically and culturally. Explore the heritage sites to learn the stories of our past, which helped shape Abbotsford as we know it today. Then experience our galleries and live theatre to see our community come to life through abstract, performance and contemporary art.
