

BC ARTS + CULTURE
weekly digest

DIVE INTO LOCAL PERFORMING ARTS

Until we can flock back into our beloved local theatres, let's all support and encourage our performing arts organizations by tuning into their virtual programming!

Are you missing theatrical performances, concerts, comedy, poetry?

We've got the links for the great entertainment you're looking for!

THE PORT THEATRE

Award-winning musician Rick Scott and his dulcimer combine songs, storytelling and humour in warm-hearted concerts for the whole family! On Sunday, April 18th at 2:30pm, he'll be bringing his lively entertainment to the Port Theatre for a virtual livestream performance. Tickets are $11.50 per household, and offer 48 hours to enjoy the show once it goes

ISLE OF THE ARTS

The Gabriola Arts Council's Isle of the Arts Festival is right here! From Wednesday, March 31st to Sunday, April 11th, they're offering 23 interactive and engaging workshops held via Zoom! From creative business classes, to live poetry readings and musical performances, to conversations about inclusion and live.

KAMLOOPS SYMPHONY

The Kamloops Symphony is adding a visual twist to their concert experiences with 'Sounds In Sand! Now available on-demand, you can watch Russian mother/daughter sand artists, Marina and Eva Sosnina craft elegant, unique artwork in sync with the symphony orchestra. Tickets are $15, which offers unlimited access to the show until Sunday, April 11th.

reconciliation - you don't want to miss a thing!

EVERGREEN CULTURAL CENTRE

While waiting to re-open their theatre shows, Evergreen Cultural Centre has begun a new series entitled the 'Rehearsal Hall Sessions'! Their first show features the socially and environmentally-conscious folk music of emerging local singer/songwriters, Luke Wallace and Corrina Keeling. The show is now available on their YouTube channel and Facebook page.

Find More Events

Check our website for additional events for the Easter Weekend and month of April.

Want to be Featured in this Digest and on Art-BC.com ?

Become a
Marketing Member
Today !

Each Marketing

BC's Guide to Arts & Culture

EXPLORE CREATIVE COMMUNITIES EVENTS NEWS ABOUT THE GUIDE ADVERTISE CONTACT US

Home > Places > British Columbia > University Endowment Lands > Museums & Heritage Sites > MOA | Museum of Anthropology

MOA | Museum of Anthropology

Place Category: Indigenous Culture and Museums & Heritage Sites

Just 20 minutes from downtown Vancouver and the Vancouver International Airport, the Museum of Anthropology, located at the University of British Columbia, houses one of the world's finest displays of Northwest Coast First Nations art in a spectacular Arthur Erickson-designed building overlooking mountains and sea. Inside the soaring glass and concrete structure of MOA's Great Hall, see magnificent totem poles, weavings and contemporary artworks. Admire the world's largest collection of works by Northwest Coast artist Bill Reid, including his famous cedar sculpture The Raven and the First Men, and see the world's largest collection of Northwest Coast masks. MOA also features over 9,000 objects from around the world are displayed. The museum also features a large outdoor area with a variety of exhibits, including a large totem pole and a large wooden house. The museum is a must-visit for anyone interested in Indigenous culture and art.

Indigenous Culture and Museums & Heritage Sites

6292 NW Marine Dr
University Endowment Lands
British Columbia
V6T 1Z1
Canada

Open Time:
Daily 10am - 5pm
Thursdays 10am - 9pm
Closed Mondays October 15 - May 15

Website

AD SAMPLE

Register Today

Member receives our full service set up + 3 event listings and more.

In addition you'll receive:

- your content shared with 35K followers across social media platforms
- Features in our Newsletter and News Digest sent out to 10K subscribers

Social Media

Daily social media engagement with all of our participants.

35k Followers on all social media platforms

