BC's Guide to Arts & Culture

weekly BC ARTS + CULTURE digest

Discover Your Community Arts Council

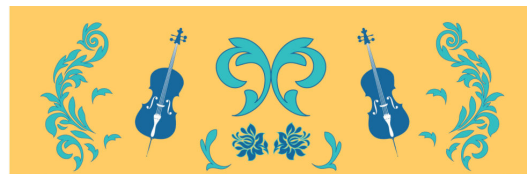

Throughout this past year, arts councils have found new and inventive ways to keep you safely engaged with the arts and your local community. These organizations have continued to provide excellent programming you can enjoy from the comfort of your home, as well as opportunities to gather safely and see captivating local art in person.

The Hearth Gallery | Bowen Island Arts Council

Stop by The Hearth Gallery at the Bowen Island Arts Council to see works exhibited by painters, sculptors, potters, and many more. The Council and its Gallery are also host and supporter of myriad art exhibits, literary and cultural events. Learn more about their current exhibitions and hear directly from artists by watching their “Artists in our Midst” series at thehearthartsonbowen.ca.

CityScape Community ArtSpace Gallery & North Van Arts

This year, North Van Arts will be hosting their annual event Arts in the Garden online, where you can enjoy Artist Vignettes and Garden Concert videos from the comfort of your home! Feed your need for live music & performance, be inspired by local artists and gardeners, and connect with nature. Tune in June 12-17, 2021.

Kamloops Arts Council

Comox Valley Arts Council

Elevate and the Comox Valley Arts Council are now accepting submissions for Show Us Your Poem - Elevate Summer Poetry Contest! Whether you're a seasoned poet or just completed your first sonnet, you can submit your poem by June 20th for a chance to win cash prizes and a shoutout in CV Collective magazine and on Elevate and CV/A websites. Click here to learn more.

The Kamloops Arts Council produces high-quality, year-round arts programs and events that help to connect the local community and promote local talent. This month, catch a wide range of works on display at the KAC Main Gallery, including Soundings: An Exhibition in Five Parts, The Laboratory of Spatial Bemusement, and "Painting with Wax" by Judith Anderson.
