BC's Guide to Arts & Culture

weekly BC ARTS + CULTURE digest

Art Walks & Events

Summery sunshine days have arrived, so has our ability to step out of our communities to discover and enjoy public art! Art Walks are a great way to explore not just your local community and culture, but also the cultural diversity of BC. Look for art walks and tours happening across BC and enjoy the murals, sculptures and more this summer.

North Shore Public Art Trails

Looking for an artistic and FREE way to spend the day on Vancouver's North Shore? This itinerary highlights only some of the creative and inspiring public art displayed in North and West Vancouver but takes you across four of our neighbourhoods and a stop at the art trail at Park Royal for good measure!

Murals of Chemainus

Come to this quaint seaside town and follow the yellow footsteps to discover the more than 54 murals and nine sculptures depicting Chemainus' colourful past. There are 44 murals in the Historical Series, five in the Emily Carr-inspired Series and six art pieces in the new Community Mural Series. To make your visit even more memorable play the piano in the new mural In Tune With Nature and take a contemplative stroll through the Chemainus Labyrinth.

Public Art and Murals in Sechelt

Take a walk through downtown Sechelt, BC, to discover a variety of colourful murals and locally-made sculptures.

This guided tour includes highlights of the District of Sechelt's Public Art Collection as well as murals located on various businesses throughout the community. You'll have the opportunity to view a diverse range of works and learn more about the artists who made them.

Set atop Boucherie Road and surrounded by mountain views, the 23-acre Grizzli estate is a picturesque setting for West Kelowna's annual Art in the Park series. This two-day outdoor event promotes the arts community and features a variety of Canadian artists, live music and wine. Meet local artists and their unique creations.
