Heritage is the layering of stories that describe the uniqueness of a community's past and present while informing the future. This year's Heritage Week: Layer by Layer, invites you to dig deeper into your community's past and explore the many layers and stories that your unique community holds. Take some time this week to learn something new about the many "layers" of the place you call home.

When? February 19 – 25, 2024

Barkerville Historic Town

Museum of Northern BC

Enter the Museum of Northern BC in Prince Rupert and experience the beauty of Northwest Coast architecture and the rich traditions of the Tsimshian First Nation. Located overlooking Prince Rupert Harbour, the Museum is renowned for its spectacular collection of timeless art, that brings to life the history and culture of the Northwest Coast.

Nelson Museum, Archives & Gallery

The Nelson Museum, Archives & Gallery offers a captivating experience in a beautifully restored 1902 heritage building. This state-of-the-art facility delves into the region's history, and is home to one of two permanent installations of Jaime Black's poignant social justice project: The REDress Project. Visiting the open Cold War bunker offers a unique glimpse into a chapter of history. Two art gallery spaces feature award-winning exhibitions, and a charming Gift Shop highlights creations from over 120 local artists. The museum seamlessly blends history, art, and local talent, ensuring a memorable and enriching visit for all.

Connecting Culture Makers + Culture Seekers

Our Mission is to create a sustaining, multi-platform, widely available and user-friendly resource for culturally curious explorers to connect with culture makers and unique curated community experiences in regions across British Columbia.

Van Dop & Associates has been an industry leader in empowering the artists, producers and keepers of Arts, Culture and Heritage in BC to stay connected with an authentic and engaged audience for over thirty years.

We advocate for economic strength in the cultural sector through strategic, curated, community marketing partnerships with local tourism, arts and cultural organizations, other major stakeholders and the people cultivating, creating and preserving local culture.
