A visit to Echo Valley Ranch & Spa is more than a vacation, it's like coming home. Home to yourself and to the ancient connection between mankind and nature that leaves you with new perspectives and a renewed commitment to yourself.

Share our Digests with Your Friends !

The Bed and Breakfast is nestled on 172 acres among the majestic mountains of the Nass Valley, and the property offers many wonderful outdoor experiences.

Grizzly and black bears are regulars here along with wolves, coyotes, foxes and martins. If you are a birdwatcher, you will be surprised by the number of species of birds that make their home here in the valley.

Follow our trail down to the end of our property and you will find yourself in what is often referred to as the "bear patch" or better known as the Ginget, an ecological reserve. This is where bears and other wildlife head to get their fill of fresh fish. We also have several resident beavers in the Ginget so don't be surprised to see a few beaver dams in the area!
